

NEWS RELEASE

FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE •

W. J. USERY, Jr., Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Friday, November 30, 1973

W. J. Usery, Jr., Director of the Federal Mediator and Conciliation Service, today announced the appointment of Gayle F. Wineriter as a National Representative of the Service to assist local mediators in settlement of significant labor-management disputes.

Effective December 10, Wineriter will become one of five such trouble-shooters working under Kenneth E. Moffett, Director of Mediation Services for the Agency.

Wineriter, 46, has had a decade of field experience as a Federal labor relations mediator at St. Louis and Houston, his most recent field station. He has helped settle disputes in a wide variety of industries, including oil refining, chemical, maritime, and shipbuilding.

Wineriter is married and has three sons.

# #

For further information: Norman Walker,
Tele: 961-3518